

"As special needs parents we don't have the power to make life 'fair,' but we do have the power to make life joyful." Anonymous

Clelian Heights is all about trying and learning with a resilience of spirit that leads us to becoming our own person looking forward to a future happily and gratefully lived!

"The best and most beautiful things in the world cannot be seen or even touched, they must be felt with the heart!" Helen Keller

"Most people see what is, and never see what can be."

Albert Einstein

"Difficult roads often lead to beautiful destinations."

Hilary Hilton Ziglar

"Some of the most wonderful people are the ones who don't fit into boxes." Tori Amos

"Children with special needs come into our lives, leaving footprints on our hearts, and we are never the same." unknown

"The things that make me different are the things that make me, me." A.A. Milne

GRATITUDE is an expression of love—it is a gift of appreciation for gifts given and gifts received. It is expansive in its effect and its reach. It is about cherished acts of kindness and generosity. It's a sign of unconditional love and caring.
