

Intervala, LLC

Intervala, LLC has teamed up with the Clelian Heights Transition to Work program to offer students valuable community-based work training experiences. Based just outside of Mount Pleasant, PA, Intervala is a full-service manufacturer specializing in high-performance printed circuit board assemblies and cable harness assemblies.

While at work, Clelian students are required to wear static-resistant coats and shoe straps to safely perform their tasks. This partnership is just one example of our many training opportunities and provides tremendous benefits for our students!

Chick Fil A - Westmoreland Mall

Transition to Work students work every Wednesday morning at Westmoreland Mall. Their responsibilities include cleaning, restocking condiments, and preparing kids' bags with necessary items. Each student working at Chick-fil-A receives a name tag. The Westmoreland Mall Chick-fil-A has been an amazing partner in our Transition Program, offering our students a valuable and rewarding experience. They truly make our students feel like important members of the team!

What is transition to work?

The Clelian Heights School Transition to Work Program offers hands-on job training for students ages 14+ both on and off campus. Students work in areas such as the dining room, kitchen, Clelian Cafe, garden, and more. They also shop weekly at Walmart and SAM's Club for the cafe. In the community, students explore various locations.

The following businesses provide job training opportunities for our students:

- Horseman's Hide Away Horse Barn
- Intervala
- Hempfield Municipal Garage Car Wash
- Caritas Christi
- Westmoreland County Meals on Wheels
- Westmoreland County Food Bank
- Chick Fil A
- Auntie Anne's Pretzels
- Thriftique
- Hempfield Park
- Greensburg and Delmont Libraries
- Peinetti's Bakery
- Cornerstone Ministries
- St. Emma's Retreat House and Christ Church

The Clelian Cafe

A student-run café that serves snacks, microwavable lunch items, coffee, tea, hot chocolate, and specialty coffee drinks. Students are responsible for reviewing order forms, processing payments, preparing orders, and assisting with drink preparation. Once everything is ready, they deliver the orders!

Clelian Heights Kitchen

Transition to Work students, get the opportunity to "work" in the Clelian Heights kitchen. While working, students will run the industrial dishwasher on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons! On Tuesday, students will clean the Clelian Cafe delivery bins, water pitchers and Keurig catch trays. Wednesdays, students clean the lunch trays. Students learn all the required steps to run the dishwasher, correct procedures and regulations in a school kitchen and finish by cleaning their work space!
